SUPPORT OUR CHARITY: ORGANIZATION FOR AUTISM RESEARCH (OAR)

ASK ME HOW TO BOOK YOUR FUNDRAISER!

We're proud to say that at ONEHOPE, we've been supporting individuals with autism since we were founded. In honor of Autism Awareness Month, we're highlighting the Organization for Autism Research (OAR).

The Organization for Autism Research is a collection of people working to fund research and programs that make a day-to-day difference in the lives of people with autism. The research they fund helps to inform programs that expand education, teacher and parent training, self-care, and social and employment skills.

ONEHOPE CONTRIBUTION: To date, ONEHOPE has proudly donated over $35,000 to OAR to fund scholarships and sponsor events supporting autism research. ONEHOPE APRIL CONTRIBUTION:

ONEHOPE is donating $15,000 to OAR's scholarship program to fund three scholarships for students across the autism spectrum. ONEHOPE'S GOAL: Fund an additional $5,000 scholarship through this month's fundraiser, where 10% goes directly to the Organization for Autism Research.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

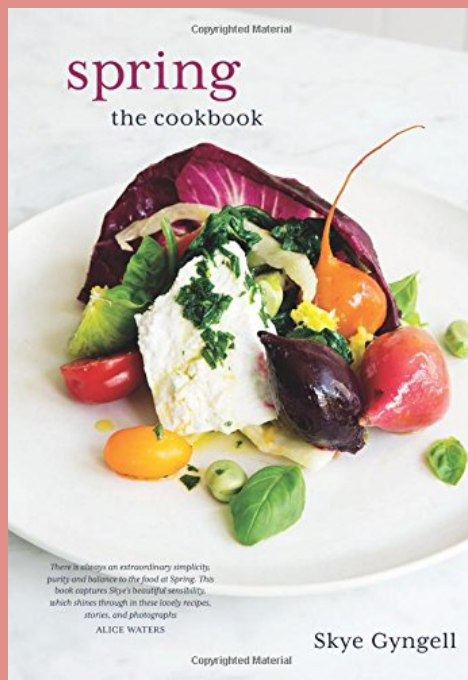

THIS IS WHAT I KNOW ABOUT ART

BY KIMBERLY DREW

In this powerful and hopeful account, arts writer, curator, and activist Kimberly Drew reminds us that the art world has space not just for the elite, but for everyone.

Pocket Change Collective is a series of small books with big ideas from today's leading activists and artists. In this installment, arts writer and co-editor of Black Futures Kimberly Drew shows us that art and protest are inextricably linked. Drawing on her personal experience through art toward activism, Drew challenges us to create space for the change that we want to see in the world. Because there really is so much more space than we think.
