BOOK OF THE MONTH

Behind A Locked Door

She opened the wrong door. Now her life will never be the same.

When Lucy Foster visits her old friend, she doesn't expect to hear a baby crying behind a locked cellar door. But what she finds shatters everything she thought she knew: a terrified teenage girl and a newborn, hidden away like a secret shame.

As Lucy's quiet life spirals into a media frenzy, and as the town turns against her, one thing becomes clear—someone is watching. And they want Lucy to stop helping the girl in the cellar.

Because the truth is darker than anyone imagines. And unlocking it may cost Lucy everything.

Mom Cocktail Series:

A Weekly Sip of Self-Care

Motherhood is beautiful, chaotic, exhausting, and rewarding—often all within the same hour. Between school runs, work deadlines, laundry piles, and the constant mental checklist, it's easy to forget one very important person: you. That's exactly where the Mom Cocktail Series comes in—a simple, fun reminder that you deserve a moment to unwind.

This weekly series is all about carving out a little "me time" in a way that feels light, enjoyable, and totally judgment-free. Whether it's five quiet minutes after the kids go to bed or a rare afternoon to yourself, the idea is to create a small ritual you can look forward to each week.

Each post in the series features an easy-to-make cocktail (and sometimes a mocktail option), designed with busy moms in mind. No complicated ingredients. No fancy bar tools required. Just simple recipes that bring a touch of joy to your routine. Think refreshing, pretty, and just a little indulgent—because you've earned it.

But this series isn't really about the drinks. It's about what they represent.

It's about pausing instead of rushing.

It's about savoring instead of multitasking.

It's about reconnecting with yourself outside of your role as "mom."

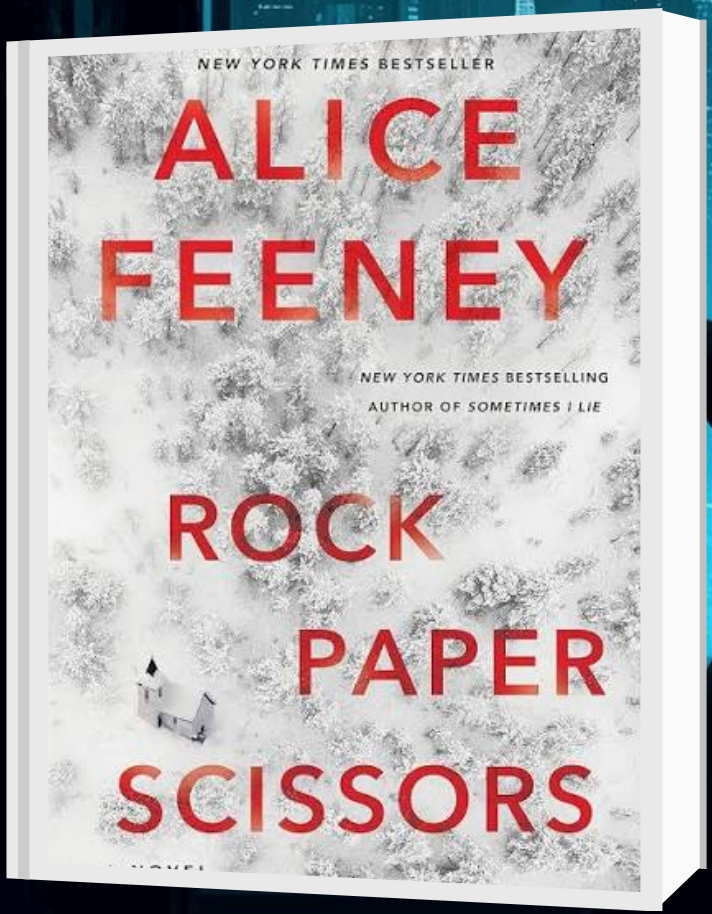

Maybe your version of this moment includes a cozy blanket and your favorite show. Maybe it's music in the background and a quiet kitchen. Or maybe it's laughter shared with a friend over FaceTime. However it looks, this is your time—and it matters.

The Mom Cocktail Series is your weekly invitation to slow down, breathe, and enjoy something just for you. Because taking care of yourself isn't extra—it's essential.

So go ahead—pour a glass, take a sip, and celebrate the small moments. You deserve them.

Crafting offers a wonderful opportunity to explore different materials and techniques, whether it's through knitting, woodworking, painting, or any other form of art that speaks to you. It's a chance to immerse yourself in the process, finding joy in the act of creating something with your own hands.

In these lessons, we'll not only focus on the technical skills needed to bring your ideas to life but also on the importance of infusing your personal style into each project. Crafting is about more than just the final product—it's about the journey, the experimentation, and the satisfaction of making something uniquely yours.

It's a beautiful way to blend creativity with emotion, resulting in pieces that hold personal significance and tell a story. Each handmade item becomes a cherished keepsake, a tangible reminder of the love and effort poured into its creation.

In our crafting sessions, we'll explore how to infuse heartwarming sentiments into your projects, transforming everyday materials into extraordinary expressions of affection. Whether you're crafting a gift for a loved one or creating something special for yourself, the process allows you to slow down and savor the moment, making each stitch or brushstroke a celebration of love and creativity.

So, let's gather our tools, let our imaginations run wild, and create beautiful pieces that not only enhance our surroundings but also touch our hearts.

Getting Ready for Winter

Planning Your Winter Garden

Plan Your Garden

With the New Year comes fresh plans and a new garden! This month, I'm excited to map out all the plants I intend to cultivate. I enjoy strategizing the layout of my garden, deciding where each plant will thrive and where they won't. Over time, I've discovered which plants grow well together and which do not. Having a clear plan for where everything will be planted ahead of time makes spring planting so much easier. Join me on my journey of planning and planting!

Seed Collection

If you have a seed collection similar to mine, take the time to review it and ensure that none of the seeds are open, sprouting, damp, or moldy. For any seeds exhibiting these issues, seal them properly, dispose of those with mold, or plant any that have started to sprout roots.

Get Your Seedlings Ready for Planting

I prefer to categorize my seedlings into groups such as vegetables, flowers, fruits, and herbs, and then plant them together in sections. To prepare your seedlings for planting, you'll need the following items:

- Soil
- Seedling containers
- Plant food
- Water
- A sunny and warm location

Plan Your Garden Layout

One important lesson I've learned over the years is to carefully determine where to position your plants. Identifying the right spots for your plants is crucial, as each one requires specific amounts of sunlight, water, and nutrients to thrive.

Frost Protection

One crucial task for winter is ensuring that your plants are either covered or brought indoors to shield them from frostbite. This will help safeguard your plants.
